

THE ROLE OF THE NON-EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

12th September @ IoD Scotland, 10 Charlotte Square, Edinburgh, EH2 4DR
31st October @ 200 SVS, 200 St Vincent Street, Glasgow, G2 5RG
28th November @ Dundee, location tbc

The Workshop

These one-day workshops (9-5) identify the various roles of the non-executive director (NXD) in a variety of corporate settings – family company, subsidiaries, Third Sector and Public sector; how their appointment can help balance a board and how they make an effective contribution to a board's work. It also examines methods for their selection and reviews their motivation, induction and reward.

Who Should Attend?

Individuals who are currently a non-executive director; those seeking appointment as a non-executive director and those organisations planning to appoint a non-executive director. Over 420 delegates have successfully completed this workshop.

Workshop Content

- What you as an NXD can bring to your board
- What inputs NXDs can give to the board in different types of organisations and situations
- An outline of the legal and ethical duties and responsibilities of a NXD
- Clarification of the qualities and experiences needed to fulfil an NXD appointment
- Practical guidance on how best to secure an appointment as an NXD
- Provision of an overview of the UK Corporate Governance Code and other relevant codes of governance.
- Detailed guidance on finding, selecting, appointing and rewarding NXDs

Workshop Benefits

Help improve your current performance as an NXD and help prepare you for the time when you may be appointed as an NXD. All delegates will receive extensive workshop notes and a certificate of attendance. There will be ample opportunity to share experiences and future aspirations.

“Wouldn't normally mark so many 5s however content and facilitator so relevant and interesting for all of my current, and I'm sure, future NXD roles that the scoring is appropriate. Basis to build further confidence and effectiveness in these roles. Thank you”
Senior Manager, Financial Sector
